About the Retreat

The Rt. Rev. Robert W. Ihloff, retired bishop of Maryland, leads this retreat.

In this time of Late Epiphany explore the gifts you've been given that you can give back to your partner, family, Church or the wider community. Along with keynote presentations by Bishop Ihloff, this retreat features a Healing Service, small group discussions, social time, free time to explore Claggett Center or simply reflect, and the camaraderie of Christian men from across the diocese and denominations. We invite you to join us for the first time, or come back to what will be a rich and powerful weekend retreat. While we will encourage your full participation, we stick to the motto: "All May - Some Should - None Must!"

Stuff to bring along and other useful information:

- AN OPEN HEART, READY TO RELAX, ENJOY AND EXPLORE!
- Snacks & beverages to share
- Notebook/journal and pencil, cards, games
- Comfortable, casual clothing and shoes. (Active outdoor clothing for those hiking or running. An extra change of shoes is recommended for those hiking.)
- We will be staying in The Christiane Inn; Linens and towels will be provided.
- Bring an alarm clock if you need one to get up - the beds are comfortable!
- Volunteers needed for set up and take down. Please come early/ stay late if able.
- If you have any special needs relating to food or accommodations or any other questions about the weekend, please contact Sharon Tillman at 301-874-5147 X108, or at stillman@claggettcenter.org.
